1. Recruitment Sector: School of Computer Engineering and Science

2. Position: Professors

3. Professional Field
   1) Computer Science and Technology

4. Job Description
   1) Lead the team to enhance the influence and competitiveness of the discipline in the international and domestic academic fields;
   2) Fulfill required teaching responsibilities;
   3) Organize and initiate national research projects;
   4) Publish quality research papers;
   5) Actively participate in the international academic exchanges, conferences and social services.

5. Qualification
   1) PhD holders in relevant disciplines from an internationally reputable university; under 45;
   2) Have experience as a principal investigator of national research projects;
   3) Have published research papers in top international journals of computer science;
   4) Be able to follow the cutting-edge research of the discipline, and have strong scientific research ability;
   5) Have a sense of professionalism, responsibility and team work.